People who want to know more about a proposed state insurance exchange for buying health coverage can attend meetings next week in Hendersonville and Nashville.

Tennessee can either set up its own exchange or allow the federal government to do it, under terms of the Affordable Care Act. The state has not yet decided which route it will take, but the Tennessee Insurance Exchange Planning Initiative has released a summary of stakeholder feedback.

Brian Haile, who oversaw the initiative, will speak Monday at a meeting from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at Life Church, 120 Indian Lake Blvd. in Hendersonville.

Haile will also speak at another meeting set for noon Wednesday at Spruce Street Baptist Church, 504 Spruce St. in Nashville.
